

Metalloproteinases and their inhibitors: beginning, past and future

This meeting is held to honor the contributions of Hideaki Nagase and Gillian Murphy to the field of metalloproteinase research on the occasion of their 70th birthdays and retirements in 2016. This meeting will discuss recent advances in understanding the roles of metalloproteinases in health and disease, and also provide the community with an opportunity to reflect on the history of this field with a view to identifying future research priorities.

The meeting will be held on August 4th-5th 2016 at Keble College, Oxford. The reception dinner will be held in the 19th century dining hall of the College, and accommodation will also be right on site at the College.
